

Job offer

CEO BMCP PROJECT

CICNanogune is looking for a CEO to head an advanced mass spectrometry detector (BMCP) project, whose technology consists of integrating a Si₃N₄ nanomembrane (NM) in detection mechatronics (own software) within an MCP (micro channel plate) capable of precisely and reliably identifying macromolecules, proteins and high mass molecular conglomerations in mass spectrometry equipment.

Go to the project

Full-time

Donostia-San Sebastián

In person

Main tasks

In particular, the remit will include business planning and strategy, by optimising commercial, technical, economic and human resources.

Main duties

- Business development: Preparing the annual management and/or strategic plan, leading the commercial activity, identifying new opportunities, and project monitoring.
- Financial management: Overseeing the financial activity, fund-raising, and leveraging capital.

Profile Requirements

- Higher education qualification and experience in business development.
- Proficiency in written and spoken English.

The following will be an asset:

- Scientific-technical (in particular in chemistry) and/or management studies, MBA or similar.
- Practical knowledge of mechanics will be an asset.
- Experience in entrepreneurial initiatives and capital leverage.
- Experience in market analysis, sales and marketing technological products.

Interested?
This way please